Copy of Resolution No V

Resolved that Messrs: Nanjundiah and M. Ramachendra Rao be informed, in reply to their letters dated 2nd September and 26th July 1897 respectively, protesting against the issue of further policies on reduced bonus without their Consent, that, in accordance with the rulings of Government Contained in Proceedings Nos 2809-48 25 and 22686-720 R 2409 dated 19th May 1892 and 21st June 1894, respectively, further insurance for a reduced bonus is Compulsory in their Cases. A separate reference will however be made to Government suggesting for their consideration the desirability of omitting the words "with the Consent of the proposer" in rule 20, as from 1st July last, the old officials who have not already submitted their applications are ineligible for insurance
